

GAVE WIFE RICHES AND FELL INTO HER TRAP WITH BLONDE

Gas Magnate Admits He'll Marry Again "If Right
One Comes Along."

CAN'T GO IT ALONE.

Wife Denies She Contemplates Matrimony—Husband Accepts Blame 'to Be Honorable.'

Supreme Court Justice Goff departed from the usual procedure in hearing undefended divorce cases today when he asked Mrs. Katherine Hirsch, attractive young wife of Oscar A. Hirsch, president of the Independent Gas Light and Electric Company, if she intended to remarry if a divorce were granted her.

Mrs. Hirsch is an heiress, residing at No. 725 Riverside Drive. At the outset of the trial she declared her husband refused to consider a reconciliation, but wanted to continue bestowing attentions on other women.

"Have you told anyone you wish to remarry if you are divorced?" asked the jurist.

"No," replied Mrs. Hirsch, hanging her head bashfully.

"Do you receive any attentions from other gentlemen?" the court inquired.

"I have a few friends," said Mrs.
Hirsch, "some of whom I met through Mr. Hirsch when we were happily wedded."

SAID HUSBAND CALLED AN-OTHER WOMAN HIS WIFE.

"Is Mr. Hugh Davis one of these friends?"

"Yes," came the reply after a moment's hesitation. Davis, a wealthy wholesale meat dealer, it developed in previous testimony, found Hirsch and a beautiful young blonde woman resided at the Hotel Nassau at Long Island and telephoned Mrs. Hirsch.

"Is Mr. Davis single?"

"Yes."

"What was your motive in keeping such a strict surveillance over your husband?"

Mrs. Hirsch began to cry. "I simply couldn't bear to hear of my husband calling other women his wife," she sobbed.

Hirsch was called to the stand. Under the Court's examination he admitted he had talked over a divorce with his wife and they had agreed that divorce would be best for both.

In reply to the Court's question as to whether in his twenty-five years here he had partaken of the city's pleasures and had concluded that divorce was best and that he ought to give his wife an opportunity to get on, Hirsch said he did think she ought to get the divorce.

HONORABLE FOR THE MAN TO TAKE ALL THE BLAME.

"Did the man you met in your club and in your business tell you that it was the honorable thing for a husband to take all the blame and let the wife get a divorce?" the Court asked, "and did they say to commit the statutory act was the proper thing in the eyes of men of the world?"

"I heard some men say that," Hirsch replied.

In answer to a direct question, as to whether he intended to marry again, if divorced, Hirsch admitted he would if the right woman came along. "I can't go it alone," the witness said.

After hearing testimony that Hirsch, when the final break came between himself and wife, had given her $50,000 and all he had in this world, he walked out of his home without a dollar in his pocket, Justice Goff awarded Mrs. Hirsch a decree and $40 a week alimony until she married again in this or any other country.

Flying Ax-Head Cuts Pie-man.

Firemen were breaking into the six-story building at No. 623 Broadway last night after an alarm when an ax-head flew off its handle and struck Edward Williams of Truck Company No. 24 on the wrist. He was severely cut. The fire, which was on the fifth floor in the quarters of Frankenthal & Frankenthal, dealers in ribbons, was put out after a loss of $2,000.

EXPRESS COMPANIES PLEAD.

File Briefs With U. S. C. in Request for Higher Rates.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—A brief was filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday by Charles W.

Stockton, T. B. Harrison and George L.

Shawyer, counsel for the Adams, American, Southern and Wells-Fargo Express Companies in support of their petition for a modification of the commission's order of Feb. 1, 1914, by which the revenue would be increased $2,581,817.

The express companies face a present deficit of $2,580,581 from operations since the lower rates went into effect.

Their lawyers say, and the increase they now ask would give an apparent profit of only $150,423 on a gross business of $117,000,000, which is far from a reasonable return.
